

I feel it is important to keep diverse opinions before the public. It would be much more difficult if newspapers and TV and radio stations were part of one large organization as they would be much more likely to present the same views across all markets. In order to develop reasoned opinions, the public needs to consider as many perspectives as possible about important issues. Please do not allow further consolidation of our news sources. Thank you.